Don't panic but we're not going to be posting many blog articles on this website for a while.

Why?

Well, relocation, for one reason.

Apogee Consulting, Inc. is moving its physical location from Orange County, CA to North Dallas, Texas.

Moving takes some effort and thus, we will have little time for article writing over the next few weeks.

So please do not give up on us! We'll be back in August with more articles.

In the meantime, Nick Sanders, Principal Consultant, will be co-Chair at the upcoming DCAA Audit & Compliance Bootcamp in San Diego, CA.

Come to San Diego in late July!

Introduce yourself to Nick: he'll buy you a drink, we promise.

We'll be back as soon as we can
