Nick Sanders, Principal Consultant of Apogee Consulting, Inc., is pleased and honored to once again present at an upcoming educational seminar jointly sponsored by the San Diego Chapters of the National Contract Management Association (NCMA) and the Association of Government Accountants (AGA).

On Wednesday, October 19, 2015, Nick will be leading a discussion entitled "Properly Categorizing Your Suppliers—It Matters! Subcontractors, Temps, Consultants, and Other Suppliers". This is a seemingly trivial topic but one that is surprisingly difficult to get right; and one that has unpleasant consequences if you get it wrong. We'll spend three hours on the topic, and we probably won't have time to discuss all of its ramifications.

Location: Four Points by Sheraton Hotel, San Diego, CA

Cost: $60 for NCMA/AGA members, $80 for non-members
